

Responsibility Code

In every area of life, there are parameters, rules, and regulations that we all must abide by. These "codes" offer ways in which the interactions and behaviors between people are governed and executed, so the interests of all are honored and maintained.

General Code:

- 1. Respect others in the same way that you would like to be respected in return.
2. Respect all property owned by other parties that you will come to interact with as a part any SSM event, whether it is a building, furniture, or other equipment of any sort.
3. Respect the property of other students and adult staff.
4. You are responsible for safeguarding your own money, valuables, and property.
5. Obey the requests made by adult staff and individuals who have been given authority by the Pastor, i.e., a rafting guide.
6. Be extremely alert when encountering people you do not know. Be polite and kind, but do not trust anyone unless staff members have acknowledged their authority and trustworthiness.
7. Wear clothing that is appropriate to the SSM Code:
- You may not wear clothing that displays questionable material slogans, advertising, or groups that promote questionable behavior.
- T-shirts with sleeves need to be worn by both young women and young men. No tank tops or muscle shirts.
- Pajamas, pajama bottoms, and other sleepwear may not be worn at a SSM function except to sleep in.
- MEN: You must wear appropriate swimwear (no speedos) that fit and do not show your underwear. You may not engage in visible "sagging" and a shirt must either be tucked-in or cover the top of the pants and shorts you may wear.
- WOMEN: You may not wear tank-tops, mid-riff tops, spaghetti strap tops, two-piece bathing suits, tight/revealing tops, short shorts, or low-cut jeans.
- DISCLAIMER: Clothing appropriateness is subject to the judgment of the Student Ministries Staff. The staff reserves the right to make that judgment based upon Student Ministry standards and will not consult individual family standards. Students will be asked to change attire if it is determined that clothing is not appropriate according to the staff's judgment. Please be conservative and wise in your judgment when you pack for a Stonebriar Student Ministry event.
8. When designated, males may not be found in female-exclusive areas, and females may not be found in male-exclusive areas.
9. Do not engage in public or private displays of affection and "romantic drama."
10. Raiding, practical joking, and pranks are prohibited.
11. Cell phone and other electronics use may be limited by staff at Student Ministry events.
12. Contact a staff member if you do not feel well or suffer an injury.
13. Do not wander away from the group or across defined boundaries without alerting a staff member. Never walk around alone or be alone at anytime.
14. Do not approach stray animals or wildlife if encountered.
15. Escape thunderstorms by quickly moving into the closest building.
16. Drugs and alcohol are prohibited. Tobacco products are prohibited at Student Ministry events and functions. Over the counter and prescription medications are to be given to staff members to be distributed on extended trips.
17. Do not bring hazardous or inappropriate equipment or materials, which include weapons, laser pointers, matches and lighters, and fireworks. The staff reserves the right to make their own judgments on what is hazardous and inappropriate.
