

LESSON 3 FOR LEADERS

INVITATION

We invite you to pause, listen, and shift your gaze toward the Father ...

LESSON AT A GLANCE

WONDER TRUTH: Because the Holy Spirit Leads Me, I Am Led

SCRIPTURE: John 14

WORD OF WONDER: Exodus 15:11c

Read John 14:15–21, 25–26. People today have so many voices competing for their attention. Social media and news media. Talk radio and podcasts. Ads on the internet. Ads on the interstate. It feels like everything everywhere is always shouting: “Look at me” or “Go this way” or “Trust this,” they say. I think that’s why people sometimes latch onto the wrong things. When life feels chaotic, it’s natural to long for an anchor in the storm, and it’s easy to grab after whatever’s making the most noise.

Followers of Jesus are not exempt from the chaos, but Jesus hasn’t left us without help in the world. We have an anchor that never fails—a helper who is always with us, dwelling deeply in our hearts. We have the Holy Spirit.

If you are a follower of Jesus, then God’s powerful, wise, and loving presence is leading you. The Holy Spirit is with you, comforting and encouraging you as you follow the way of Jesus. He gives wisdom and understanding. He plants the words of Jesus deep in our hearts and helps us see through every counterfeit.

What difference would it make if you trusted God’s presence today? What would you be able to do? Who would you be able to reach? Because the Holy Spirit leads you, you are led. Will you walk in step with Him today?

LESSON 3 FOR LEADERS JESUS PROMISES THE HOLY SPIRIT

DID YOU KNOW?

FOUNDATION BUILDING BLOCKS

WHO?

The Holy Spirit is one with God the Father and God the Son. He is God's powerful, wise, and loving presence, empowering believers to honor God and follow Jesus. The Spirit brings wisdom and knowledge of God's Word, guiding and encouraging God's children.

WHAT?

Before Jesus died on the cross, He comforted His disciples by promising that the Holy Spirit would come to them after He went to be with the Father. The Spirit would be their helper, teaching them all things and reminding them of Jesus' words.

WHERE?

Jesus promised the Holy Spirit's coming during His Passover supper with the disciples in an upper room of a house in Jerusalem. Shortly after, Jesus and His disciples crossed the Kidron Valley to the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus was arrested before His crucifixion.

WHEN?

This story took place shortly before Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion. Jesus and His disciples were in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread. The Holy Spirit would later come on the disciples during Pentecost, after Jesus' resurrection and ascension.

CONNECTING TO GOD'S BIG STORY

In the book of Ezekiel, God promised to give His people new hearts by placing His own Spirit within them (Ezekiel 36:26–27). This promise was realized when the Holy Spirit came to Jesus' followers, empowering all believers to reject sin and walk in newness of life.

Play Stations

SUPPLIES: dominoes, coloring utensils

Wonder Ink RESOURCES: Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit Coloring Sheet (1 per kid)

Greet the kids warmly and briefly explain the play stations to them. Invite them to play at any of the stations.

Welcome to church! While we're getting ready to start, you can play at any of these stations to help you prepare for our lesson today. Do you have any ideas about what we'll be learning today?

Play Station: Fall-O the Leader Blocks

Set up: Provide an assortment of wooden blocks or dominoes.

Play: Encourage kids to arrange the blocks so they are standing up in a row like dominoes. The blocks should be close but not touching. Ask the kids to set up the blocks in a way where if one block falls, it also knocks over the other blocks.

Play Station: Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit Coloring Sheet

Set up: Print one copy per kid of the coloring sheet and set out the coloring utensils.

Play: Let the kids color. The kids can also turn the sheet over and draw a simple maze. Have them start by marking starting and ending points on their paper and then ask them to connect the two points with a swirling and turning line.

LESSON 3 EARLY CHILDHOOD

Prayer of Invitation

Before entering into God's big story, lead kids in a prayer of invitation. Use the prayer here or your own words: God, You love us and do wonderful things for us! Holy Spirit, please fill us with wonder at how amazing You are. In Jesus' name, Amen.

God's Big Story

Pull out the Bible

Ask: What is this called? The Bible

Ask: Why is the Bible special? Because it's God's word. Everything in it is true. It really happened.

Tell the Bible story – use the script provided:

Gather kids together. Throughout the story, you will lead the kids in doing three different motions. The first motion is for when you say, "Holy;" you will put your arms straight up over your head like your whole body is an H. The second motion is for "Spirit;" you will place your arms to the side, with one curved up like a teapot and the other curved down so that together they make an S. The final motion will be for "leads the way;" you will place fingers, palms, and arms together and straight out in front of you like you are pointing the way. The motions can be done in a seated or standing position. If the children can't do the motions exactly right, that's OK. They can do their own version!

Let's listen to God's big story for today. A long time ago, Jesus came to earth, died on the cross, and then rose on the third day. He is alive! And then after a while, Jesus told His friends, the disciples, that it was time for Him to go be with God the Father in heaven. Jesus knew that this would make his friends sad, and so Jesus wanted them to know they would have help after He left. God was going to send the Holy Spirit to help them. The Holy Spirit is God's powerful, wise, and loving presence. The Holy Spirit leads the way. I am going to say that again, but let's add some motions to it. Demonstrate the motions for "Holy," "Spirit, and "leads the way." Invite the kids to do the motions along with you.

The Holy Spirit would be their powerful, wise, and loving helper. The Holy Spirit would teach Jesus' followers what is good and right and true. The Holy Spirit would help them remember what Jesus taught. And the Holy Spirit would help them follow and obey God. The Holy Spirit leads the way. Invite the kids to do the motions along with you.

The Holy Spirit was for Jesus' first followers long ago. And the Holy Spirit is for all people who follow Jesus today! God cares for His people like a loving parent cares for a child. The Holy Spirit leads and helps God's children. When we trust in Jesus, the Holy Spirit teaches us and leads us each day. The Holy Spirit leads the way. Invite the kids to do the motions along with you.

Followers of Jesus can always trust these words: Because the Holy Spirit leads me, I am led.

LESSON 3 EARLY CHILDHOOD

Game: A-MAZE-ing Way

SUPPLIES: blindfold or bandana, painter's tape

Use painter's tape to create a path on the floor.

Today we're learning that because the Holy Spirit leads us, we are led. Let's play a game where we help lead each other through the maze.

Divide kids into pairs. Place a blindfold or bandana over the eyes of one kid. Explain that her partner should take her hand or arm and lead her through the maze. When the pair reaches the end of the maze, have them switch roles and come back to the start. Be sure everyone has a chance to be led and to lead a partner through the maze.

Great job! But I wonder, could you have made it through the maze without a friend's help? It might have been hard! But with a helper and friend leading you, you knew where to go. This is like how the Holy Spirit leads us. God cares for His people like a loving parent cares for a child. The Holy Spirit leads and helps God's children. When we trust in Jesus, the Holy Spirit teaches us and leads us each day. The Holy Spirit leads the way.
